

WILSON AND MARSHALL ARE AGAIN NOMINATED TO LEAD CONCORDS OF DEMOCRACY TO VICTORY

Refusing to Hear Long Nominating Speeches, Democratic National Convention in St. Louis Takes One Unanimous Ballot, Choosing the Present Incumbents for Second Time.

BRYAN PLEDGES SUPPORT TO PARTY

Platform Includes Strong Plank on Americanism, as Desired by President—Suffrage Leaders Disappointed at Report That Sub-Committee is in Favor of Leaving "Votes for Women" Proposition to States.

Coliseum, St. Louis, June 15.—Woodrow Wilson was renominated at 11:52 o'clock tonight by the democratic national convention.

When Judge Westcott of New Jersey had placed the president in renomination and the nomination had been seconded by former Governor Harmon of Ohio and Governor Stuart of Virginia, the delegates wanted to wait no longer and cried, "Vote, vote."

On motion of Senator Hughes of New Jersey the rules were suspended and no ballots whatever were taken. The delegates simply roared "Aye" when the names of Wilson and Marshall were called and Chairman James declared them nominated by acclamation.

Senator Kern, nominating Vice President Marshall, discarded a long prepared speech and simply said: "I renominate Thomas Riley Marshall."

The nominations of both candidates were completed four minutes before midnight.

ONLY ONE VOICE IN OPPOSITION.

Robert Emmett Burke of Illinois, a delegate who announced he would vote for the president, raised the only voice in opposition. He had been elected as an independent.

Many delegates and spectators made a rush for the exits when the vice presidential nomination was made and in the confusion Senator James with great difficulty restored order.

Resolutions were then read and adopted appointing Chairman James and former Governor Glynn of New York, chairman of committees respectively to notify the president and vice president of the nominations.

Senators Hughes, Tamm and Vanderman were appointed to confer with the platform committee, which still was in session, to learn if it was ready to report.

Practically all of the delegates remained, but the galleries emptied quickly.

Senator Lewis of Illinois then was called to the platform to fill in the wait with a speech.

BIG HALL COMPLETELY FILLED.

The convention reconvened shortly after 9 o'clock tonight with the announced purpose of remaining in continuous session until it had renominated President Wilson and Vice President Marshall, adopted a platform and transacted all other business that brought the representatives of the party to St. Louis.

The platform committee, wearied by an all-day session, remained at work drawing up the declaration of principles so that it might be brought in before final adjournment was taken. A session lasting well into Friday morning was assured.

Tonight for the first time since the convention began, the big hall was completely filled.

When the gavel fell calling tonight's session to order, John W. Westcott of New Jersey, who nominated President Wilson at the Baltimore convention, was ready to deliver the speech of renomination and Senator Kern of Indiana to renominate Vice President Marshall.

While the convention was assembling it became known that the Nebraska delegation planned to withdraw the vice presidential candidacy of Governor Marshall. The delegation explained that the president had not asked the renomination of Vice President Marshall when they brought out their governor's candidacy.

BRYAN HAS TROUBLE GETTING IN.

Before the convention was called to order the coliseum was so full that the fire department took charge of the entrances and permitted no more to enter. William J. Bryan, however, managed to get by and got his usual uproarious reception. Senator James had learned of the Nebraska's plight and rescued him.

At 9:15 o'clock Chairman James rapped the convention to order. The Rev. W. J. Hardesty, chaplain of the Missouri legislature, delivered the invocation.

The crowd yielded to the rapping of the gavel long enough to hear the prayer and then renewed its demands for a speech from Bryan.

Senator Thompson then moved a suspension of the rules to permit Mr. Bryan to speak. When the motion was put there were some "noes" but the chairman ruled two-thirds had voted in favor.

BRYAN ESCORTED TO THE PLATFORM.

A committee headed by Senator Kern of Indiana escorted Mr. Bryan to the speakers' place while the floor and galleries roared their approval. Senator James introduced Mr. Bryan as "one of the leading citizens of the world and America's greatest democrat."

Outside the hall meanwhile the crush had become so great that the police fairly battled with besieging throngs. Senator Hughes of New Jersey acted in the role of an officer at one of the entrances, aiding the police.

Mr. Bryan opened by expressing his appreciation of the honor conferred by the invitation to speak to the convention.

"Every democratic convention is a love feast to me," he said, "gives me an opportunity to meet and renew acquaintances with men whom I have associated in politics for more than twenty years."

He paid his respects in complimentary manner to a number of democratic leaders of the present convention.

Reviewing the struggles of the democratic party, Mr. Bryan said:

"UNITED PARTY," DECLARES BRYAN.

"After sixteen years of waiting our party entered the White House, and fortunately we won the senate and house at the same time. Our party became responsible for national affairs and now we come after three years of labor to make our plans for the future and to submit to the American people the claims of our party for continued confidence."

"Whatever differences of opinion may exist or may have existed as to particular measures or particular acts we are here to begin the fight of 1916 a united party in every state in the union ready for battle."

"Today those who stand for the democratic party are able to give before this nation and not only give a reason

TRIP TO PALESTINE ONE OF BEST IN Y. M. B. L. HISTORY

WACO TRADE EVANGELISTS MAKE JOURNEY INTO NEW TERRITORY AND ARE GREETED WITH ENTHUSIASM ALONG THE WAY, ESPECIALLY AT OBJECTIVE POINT.

ONE HUNDRED THIRTY-FIVE GO

Next and Last Excursion of Year Will Be to Tyler, Over Cotton Belt, on June 29—Fast Return Schedule Brings Wacoans Home on Good Time.

The Young Men's Business League trade excursion yesterday amounting to a handshaking between Waco and East Texas, and Palestine, as the objective point, by an ovation tendered the boosters, declared that she was "mighty glad to meet Miss Waco."

This was the first league trip into the Palestine country and it was said by many last night have been in many respects the most profitable for business and friendly pioneering in three years.

The itinerary took the trippers along the I. & G. N. south through the Brazos valley lands into the magnolia covered hills of Anderson county. One hundred and thirty-five made the trip, starting at 6:30 a. m. and getting into Waco on return at 1 p. m., on fast schedule. The latest stops were made at Mart, Marlin, Calvert, Hearne, Franklin and Palestine.

General Chairman W. V. Crawford announced that the next and last trade excursion would be made to Tyler on June 29, over the Cotton Belt.

FIRST STOP MADE AT MART.

Mart—hospitable Mart—was the first stop that the hostler bunch made. The hopeful Wacoites got to this place in time to get their first greeting from Old Sol, who was smiling either at the fact that it was breakfast time the Mart elite were down to give their welcome. Among those who had a cordial hand for the visitors were: Earl B. Smyth, cashier of the First National bank of Mart; good fellow par excellence; E. M. Mann, attorney; H. F. Meyer, cashier of the Farmers and Merchants National bank; John D. of the First National bank; C. A. Beckham, city marshal. Aside from its bankers and grand old pavement, Mart is blessed with a "dry" republican whose hobby is stretching out the guiding hand to a "wet" republican city of some 4,000 souls—the 1910 census to the contrary notwithstanding.

One of the first things that greets the eye when one gets off at the depot is the Young Men's Christian association. Mart is proud of her railroad Y. M. C. A. Her railroad machine shops are one of the chief assets from a business standpoint. The pay roll amounting to some $25,000 per month, most of which amount finds its way back into the business coffers of the city—and into the depositories of the bank.

Mart is fortunate—admittedly so—in being almost out of McLennan county, but not quite, being only one-half mile from Limestone county and only two miles from Falls, she leaves tribute on both.

THREE AMERICAN SOLDIERS KILLED BY RAIDING BAND OF DE LA ROSA'S MEN

Mexicans Attack Detachment of Fourteenth Cavalry at San Ygnacio, but Are Driven Off With Considerable Loss—Punitive Expedition Will Follow if Hot Trail Can Be Found.

CARRANZA TROOPS HELP CHASE BANDITS

Two Wounded Cavalrymen in Such Serious Condition Recovery Doubtful—Inhabitants of Nuevo Laredo Evacuate Town and Flee South—Number of Mexican Dead Placed at Eight Out of Hundred in Party.

San Antonio, June 15.—Luis de la Rosa today made good his threat to raid the border when 100 of his men attacked a small detachment of the Fourteenth American cavalry at San Ygnacio, forty miles southwest of Laredo. His action cost him eight men killed, several wounded and many horses and some equipment. The American loss was three killed and six wounded.

Major Alonzo Gray little today was using every man of his little command in a sweeping search of the country about San Ygnacio for a "hot trail." If it is discovered a third "punitive expedition" will enter Mexican department headquarters General Funston and his staff have little hope that Major Gray will be able to get into touch with the band. By daylight this morning the attacking force had scattered like quail. There was evidence to show that a large party, perhaps the larger party, had re-entered Mexico, but other evidence indicated that some of them at least were scattered along the brush-covered country on the American side.

The first shot fired by the attacking party was at the corporal of the guard, but it was the camp of M troop but a part of the troop was on duty down the river. The remainder of that troop was reinforced by Troop I, that came from a station on the river above. The Americans fought from trenches into which they were ordered immediately after the attack began. When they moved out and began the offensive the Mexicans were gone.

For thirty minutes, according to a report made by Major Gray to General Mann at Laredo and by him transmitted to General Funston, a risk engagement ensued. There were not more than eighty Americans in the camp and it is believed that the Mexicans expected to find even a smaller number. It was the camp of M troop but a part of the troop was on duty down the river. The remainder of that troop was reinforced by Troop I, that came from a station on the river above. The Americans fought from trenches into which they were ordered immediately after the attack began. When they moved out and began the offensive the Mexicans were gone.

General Funston has not ordered more troops to reinforce Major Gray's command, but if he succeeds in finding a trail justifying him in crossing the international line in pursuit of the bandits a supporting party will be sent forward immediately and with it will go supplies to enable him to continue the pursuit as far and as long as he believes necessary.

FUNSTON NOT SURPRISED AT RAID.

General Funston and staff officers here were not surprised that a raid occurred. Several days ago information reached General Funston that De la Rosa expected to make an attack at some point, but it was impossible to determine at just what point he would strike. Recently it was officially announced in Mexico that De la Rosa had been arrested by the military authorities in Monterrey. No other confirmation has been received here. In the meantime, he had concentrated some hundreds of his bandit army at Lajaria in a camp in sight of passenger cars and even the troops of the de facto government who moved north and south over the National railroad. It was at Lajaria that General Ricaut is said to have gone and conferred with De la Rosa.

The immediate dispersal of the attacking party today is in pursuance of the same tactics adopted by the bandits who raided the border about Brownsville last year. Those raids were instigated by De la Rosa.

General Funston today ordered the Thirtieth infantry, that has been held here for several weeks, to Eagle Pass.

LIST OF AMERICAN DEAD.

The American dead are: Private Minaden, Troop M. Private Charles E. Flower, Troop M. Private Edward Kanon, Troop M.

The American wounded are: Private Thomas H. Ewing and James E. Rouch (seriously), of Troop I. Corporal William W. Ewing, of Troop I. William Minnette, Tony Havlina and Henry Matasoff, of Troop M.

CARRANZA TROOPS HELP IN THE CHASE.

Major Gray reported that he had been in communication with a detachment of Carranza troops on the Mexican side of the river and that its officer commanding had informed him that his men already had run down and shot four of the bandits. Major Gray made no comment on the officer's statement.

The identity of the raiding party was established by the stories of Vicente Lira, who was a prisoner at Lajaria several hours after the fight and announced that he had been a prisoner of the Mexicans. According to his story, he had been a prisoner at Lajaria, a station twenty miles southwest of Laredo on the National railway, several days ago, and that his captors had forced him to accompany them. He said the party left Lajaria Monday night and that the men had moved steadily across the barren country without anything to eat, arriving at a point near the American camp about midnight. The attack was made within two hours after they arrived, the party wading their horses across the river about a mile above San Ygnacio. He said that in the confusion of the fight his guards overlooked him, enabling him to remain on the American side.

Lira's story was partly credited by the American officers. He is a Mexican who until a few months ago was living in San Antonio. While here he represented himself as a snake catcher and made various trips to the sandy country along the Rio Grande in search of reptiles.

An earlier report from Major Gray said he had information that indicated the bandits had been at Las Tortillas ranch, fifteen miles south of the border, twenty-four hours ago.

The name of their leader has not been reported. From the body of one of the Mexicans, papers were taken that indicated that he was Cruz Ruiz. Undue importance was not attached to this discovery by army officers, however, who believe it not improbable that Ruiz was carrying the papers more as souvenirs of the days when he was an officer in the government army than to show his authority now.

General Funston has not ordered more troops to reinforce Major Gray's command, but if he succeeds in finding a trail justifying him in crossing the international line in pursuit of the bandits a supporting party will be sent forward immediately and with it will go supplies to enable him to continue the pursuit as far and as long as he believes necessary.

TWO OF WOUNDED MAY DIE.

Mexican Inhabitants of Nuevo Laredo Evacuate Town.

Laredo, Texas, June 15.—Two of the United States soldiers wounded in the Mexican bandits' attack on the cavalry patrol at San Ygnacio early today were in such serious condition tonight that their recovery was doubtful. It was impossible to load them into ambulances for a trip to the post hospital.

Overwrought with excitement as a result of the happenings of the day at San Ygnacio, Texas, where Mexican bandits attacked the American border patrol, fully half the population of Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, opposite here, evacuated the town tonight and have gone south to Lajaria and Lampasas, the latter place an army stronghold.

Czernowitz Abandoned by Austrians Claims Petrograd

The Associated Press summarizes the war as follows:

The twelfth day of the Russian offensive against Austrians and Germans from Volhynia to Bukovina shows no where any signs of slackening. All along the front fresh gains of the Russian troops and the capture of thousands of additional prisoners and of guns, machine guns and war supplies are claimed by the Russians. The number of prisoners exceeds 150,000.

While semi-official advices from Petrograd give a report that the Austrians have evacuated Czernowitz, capital of Bukovina, the latest official communication from Austrian headquarters says the troops of Emperor Francis Josef are making a stand north and east of the city and at both points have repulsed Russian attacks.

In the drive westward from the region of Lutsk the Austrians are counter attacking or entrenching themselves in new positions for a stand against the Russians.

No reports of gains on either side in Galicia in the region of Tarnopol have come through. Apparently there is a deadlock between the Russians and Austrians and Germans.

On the German end of the northern Russian front the Russians near Baranovich attacked and carried German trenches but later were forced to give them up under strong pressure by the Germans. Infantry attacks by the Germans have occurred along the Dvina river and in the lake region south of Dvinsk but all of these were repulsed, according to Petrograd.

The French on the slopes south of Lemorthomme, northwest of Verdun, have attacked and captured a German trench. The Germans are still violently bombarding the sectors of Thiaumont and Fort Souville, northeast of Verdun, probably preparatory to another infantry attack with the hope of a further advance toward the fortress.

Only artillery activity is in progress on the remainder of the front in France and Belgium.

The Canadians are still holding the positions recaptured from the Germans in the vicinity of Zillebeke, where there is intermittent shelling by both sides. The fighting in the Austro-Italian line in the Tyrol seemingly has died down in violence, only artillery bombardments and small infantry engagements having been reported. To the east of Monfalcone, which lies a short distance from the head of the Gulf of Trieste, the Italians have captured Austrian positions and taken prisoner 498 officers and men.

Near Felahie on the Tigris river the British to advance, according to Constantinople. The annihilation of 400 British troops on the Euphrates sector also is reported by the Turkish war office. Persian volunteers are declared to be attacking the Russians near the Persian border, inflicting heavy losses.

American Medical Association Will Meet in New York

Detroit, June 15.—Dr. Charles H. Mayo of Rochester, Minn., today was elected president of the American Medical association. New York City was awarded the 1917 convention.

Chihuahua City Normal.

El Paso, June 15.—Private advices here tonight said that conditions in Chihuahua City were again normal, the last anti-American demonstration being last Sunday.

THE DAY IN CONGRESS.

Senate. No session; meets at noon Friday.

House. Met at 11 a. m.

Miscellaneous business considered. Adjourned at 1:57 p. m. until noon Friday.

RAILROAD MEN WILL VOTE ON STRIKE

New York, June 15.—More than 500,000 union and non-union workers of America will vote within a month on the advisability of calling a general strike to enforce their demands for an eight-hour day and time and a half for overtime as a result of the failure by representatives of the railroads and the men to reach a settlement here today after a two weeks' conference.

Hope of adjusting the dispute through the conference faded when the railroads submitted a tentative compromise offer to the men granting their demands but eliminating the majority of existing "double compensation" rules.

The leaders and the 500 delegates of the four brotherhoods declined and decided on the necessity for the strike vote at a secret meeting. The result of the canvass will be known in three weeks, it was said. If the men vote for a general strike the leaders will return here and again present demands to the railroads either to gain their demands in full or a compromise offer without putting the strike into effect.

Local Readings.

The weather readings for the twenty-four hours ending at 7 o'clock last night are as follows: Maximum temperature 85 at 5 p. m., minimum 55 at 1 a. m.; barometer 29.75, humidity 55, wind passage 149 miles, fastest 44 miles an hour at 12:25 a. m. The rainfall for Wednesday night and Thursday morning was 1 1/4 inches.

Carranza Demands to Be Most Emphatically Refused

Washington, June 15.—Secretary Lansing's draft of the note which will refuse General Carranza's demand for the withdrawal of Americans from Mexico was laid before President Wilson for his approval today, almost simultaneously with receipt of news of another border raid on the camp of the Fourteenth Cavalry at San Ygnacio, Texas.

Punitive steps against those responsible for the new depredation were left to the discretion of the border commanders.

Anti-American demonstrations all over the republic have worked with the growing seriousness of economic conditions to produce such a grave situation that officials here fear a new international upheaval. An army transport is being held in readiness at Galveston to proceed to Mexican ports for refugees, another has been ordered to the vicinity of the western Mexican coast and the navy has from three coast, now taking marines to Santo Domingo, will go from that port to Vera Cruz.

The reply to Carranza's note may be sent tomorrow or Saturday.

Secretary Lansing has studiously declined to discuss it in any way, but it is known that he has prepared a vigorously worded refusal to withdraw the troops. The friendly purposes of the United States, however, are understood to be set forth in unmistakable terms.

The Mexican situation is gravely troubling diplomatic circles. Three members of the corps from South America saw state department officials today and Sir Cecil Spring-Rice, British ambassador, also talked Mexican matters over with state and war department officials.

The name of their leader has not been reported. From the body of one of the Mexicans, papers were taken that indicated that he was Cruz Ruiz, a major in Carranza's army. Undue importance was not attached to this discovery by army officers, however, who believe it not improbable that Ruiz was carrying the papers merely as a means of the days when he was an officer in the government army than to show his authority now.

General Funston has not ordered more troops to reinforce Major Gray's command, but if he succeeds in finding a trail justifying him in crossing the international line in pursuit of the bandits a supporting party will be sent forward immediately and with it will be sent a force to enable him to continue the pursuit as far and as long as he believes necessary.

FUNSTON NOT SURPRISED AT RAID.

General Funston and staff officers here were not surprised that a raid occurred. Several days ago information reached out General Funston that De la Rosa expected to make an attack at some point, but it was impossible to determine at just what point he would strike. Recently it was officially announced in Mexico that De la Rosa had been arrested by the military authorities in Monterrey, but no other confirmation was received here. In the meantime, he had concentrated some hundreds of his bandit army at Lajarta in a camp in sight of passengers and even the troops of the de facto government who moved north and south over the National railroad. It was at Lajarta that General Ruiz is said to have gone and conferred with De la Rosa.

The immediate dispersal of the attacking party today is in pursuance of the same tactics adopted by the bandits who raided the border at Brownsville last year. Those raids were instigated by De la Rosa.

General Funston today ordered the Thirtieth infantry, that has been held here for several weeks, to Eagle Pass.

TWO OF WOUNDED MAY DIE.

Mexican Inhabitants of Nuevo Laredo Evacuate Town.

Laredo, Texas, June 15.—Two of the United States soldiers wounded in the Mexican bandits' attack on the cavalry patrol at San Ygnacio early today were in such serious condition tonight that their recovery was doubtful. It was impossible to load them into ambulances for a trip to the post hospital.

Overwrought with excitement as a result of the happenings of the day at San Ygnacio, Texas, where Mexican bandits attacked the American border patrol, fully half the population of Nuevo Laredo, Mexico, opposite here, evacuated the town tonight and have gone south to Lajarta and Lampasas, the latter place an army stronghold.

Czernowitz Abandoned by Austrians Claims Petrograd

The Associated Press summarizes the war as follows:

The twelfth day of the Russian offensive against Austrians and Germans from Volhynia to Bukovina shows nowhere any signs of slackening. All along the front fresh gains of the Russian troops and the capture of thousands of additional prisoners and guns, machine guns and war supplies are claimed by the Russians. The number of prisoners exceeds 150,000.

While semi-official advices from Petrograd give a report that the Austrians have evacuated Czernowitz, capital of Bukovina, the latest official communication from Austrian headquarters says the troops of Emperor Francis Josef are making a stand north and east of the city and at both points have repulsed Russian attacks.

In the drive westward from the region of Lutsk the Austrians are counter attacking or entrenching themselves in new positions for a stand against the Russians.

No reports of gains on either side in Galicia in the region of Tarnopol have come through. Apparently there is a deadlock between the Russians and Austrians and Germans.

On the German end of the northern Russian front the Russians near Baranovichi attacked and carried German trenches but later were forced to give them up under strong pressure by the Germans. Infantry attacks by the Germans have occurred along the Dvina river and in the lake region

south of Dvinsk but all of these were repulsed, according to Petrograd.

The French on the slopes south of Lemorthomme, northwest of Verdun, have attacked and captured a German trench. The Germans are still violently bombarding the sectors of Thiaumont and Fort Souville, northeast of Verdun, probably preparatory to another infantry attack with the hope of a further advance toward the fortress.

Only artillery activity is in progress on the remainder of the front in France and Belgium.

The Canadians are still holding the positions recently captured from the Germans in the vicinity of Zillebeke, where there is intermittent shelling by both sides.

The fighting in the Austro-Italian line in the Tyrol seemingly has died down in violence, only artillery engagements and small infantry engagements having been reported. To the east of Montefalcone, which lies a short distance from the head of the Gulf of Trieste, the Italians have captured 498 officers and men.

Near Felahie on the Tigris river the Turks have repulsed an attempt of the British to advance, according to Constantinople. The annihilation of 400 British troops on the Euphrates sector also is reported by the Turkish war office. Persian volunteers are declared to be attacking the Russians near the Persian border, inflicting heavy losses.

American Medical Association Will Meet in New York

Detroit, June 15.—Dr. Charles H. Mayo of Rochester, Minn., today was elected president of the American Medical association. New York City was awarded the 1917 convention.

Chihuahua City Normal.

El Paso, June 15.—Private advices here tonight said that conditions in Chihuahua City were again normal, the last anti-American demonstration being last Sunday.

Hope of adjusting the dispute through the conference faded when the railroads submitted a tentative promise offer to the men granting the majority of existing "double compensation" rules.

The leaders and the 500 delegates of the four brotherhoods declined and decided on the necessity for the strike vote at a secret meeting. The result of the canvass will be known in three weeks, it was said. If the men vote for a general strike the leaders will return here and again present demands to the railroads either to gain their demands in full or a compromise offer without putting the strike into effect.

New York, June 15.—More than 500,000 union and non-union workers of America will vote within a month on the advisability of calling a general strike to enforce their demands for an eight-hour day and time and a half for overtime as a result of the failure by representatives of the railroads to reach a settlement here today after a two weeks' conference.

DAILY SHORT STORY.

THE MATTER OF A NAME.

By EARL REED SILVERMAN.
(Copyright, 1916, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

Two days before the Junior Promenade "Shrimp" Black received by mail a delicious box of home-made fudge, inclosed in the box was a small piece of lavender paper, on which were written the words, "I'll see you at the dance, Gertrude."

Shrimp frowned. He knew a good many girls, but for the life of him, he couldn't think of a single Gertrude among them. The package was postmarked White Plains, N. Y., but this made the mystery only more baffling. He didn't know a single person in White Plains. However, he ate the candy with relish and resolved to ask the first name of every girl with whom he danced.

At the house party preceding the Junior Promenade, he examined the fair guests with unusual interest, wondering if by any possibility the one who had sent him the candy was among them. Seated directly opposite him at the supper table was the prettiest girl he had ever seen. In Shrimp's estimation she overshadowed all the others about as a white rose would overshadow a bunch of dandelions. His heart went out to her, and he resolved to do his level best to give her a good time during the week-end. He was glad that his own partner had disappointed him at the last moment—it would leave him free to devote himself to the stranger. So directly after supper he presented himself for introduction.

"This is Miss Huntley, of White Plains," the chaperon announced. Shrimp's heart stood still. The blood raced at double speed through his six feet two inches of manhood.

"I'm delighted to meet you," he stammered. "I didn't know any one was coming here from White Plains."

She smiled up at him.

"Why not from White Plains?" she asked. Shrimp couldn't quite decide whether there was a twinkle in her eyes or not.

"Oh, no reason at all," he assured her. Then he added, "I know a girl in White Plains. Her name is Gertrude."

"I don't suppose I've met her." There was a hint of mischief in Miss Huntley's voice. "Is she to be here tonight?"

"She—she rather expected to come," he admitted, uneasily.

"What's her last name?" Shrimp was certain now that she was laughing at him.

"I don't know."

"What? You don't know?"

"Yes, I actually don't," Shrimp smiled slightly at her too evident amazement. "Strange, isn't it?"

AMERICA FIRST.

The president's speech on Wednesday at the foot of Washington's monument is a keynote that promises to overshadow everything else in the campaign.

"There are those at this moment," said he, "who are trying to levy a species of political blackmail, saying, 'Do what we wish in the interest of foreign sentiment, or we will wreak our vengeance at the polls.'"

It requires a man, a fearless man, to disclose a vital danger. The republican candidate for president is notoriously engaged in flirting with the elements which demand that the interests of some other country shall be given precedence, and has justified the Rooseveltian description of him as "a viceroy of an alien government."

Thus the issue is squarely made: America first as against some other power first.

This country has reason, over and over again, to congratulate itself upon the fact that in the greatest crisis of the world, the pilot at the helm recognizes no flag as his own but the American flag.

The fire loss in Texas since January 1 has been about $20,000,000, or an average of $4 for every man, woman and child in the state. This is twice as much as is needed to run the state government. The people, who have the bill to pay, shoulder a heavy burden in the heavy fire waste, 75 per cent of which is preventable, according to the experts.

Submission will carry easily if the issue is understood by the voters. A vote for submission is merely a vote in favor of letting the people pass on the question of statehood prohibition, at a special election to be held next year. Many antis, who believe in the rule of the people, will vote "aye" on that proposal.

Bryan gives it out that he will make an active campaign for the success of Wilson. This will sadly disappoint some folks who profess to support the democratic ticket, but whose contributions to its cause consist mainly of lamentations and prognostications. Bryan is all right, and the mulligrubs will never get him.

The Houston Post indignantly calls it a case of intolerance because that crowd of pros at Fort Worth expressed the opinion that the democratic party in Texas should use an adding machine which knows that two and two make four.

The senatorial planetary is somewhat mixed, but the ordinary observer can tell, without a telescope, that the Brooks star is leading the procession and the Colquitt comet has lost pretty much all of its caudal appendage.

"Now let us all go out and catch progressives," was a sententious suggestion of Mr. Bryan at St. Louis. Will somebody please hand Billy the bait can?

Deposits in national banks were increased by $341,000,000 between March 7 and May 1. The day of prosperity is at hand, and Texas should have all the lights burning to welcome it.

The senatorial planetary is somewhat mixed, but the ordinary observer can tell, without a telescope, that the Brooks star is leading the procession and the Colquitt comet has lost pretty much all of its caudal appendage.

"I should say it was. How do you explain it?"

"I'll tell you all about it," he announced, "if you'll tell me your first name."

But Shrimp was doomed to disappointment, for at that psychological moment Bill Scudder, his roommate, appeared on the scene.

"If you want to get to the dance on time," he advised Miss Huntley, "you'd better start getting dressed now."

"All right," she answered, "I'll hurry."

And, flashing a bright smile at Shrimp, she was gone.

"I always thought that Bill Scudder was a good fellow," Shrimp soliloquized, "but now I'm a little doubtful." His glance followed the roommate, who had gone to the spacious porch of the fraternity house. "I might ask him what her name is," he thought suddenly. "But no," he concluded, "I'll make her tell me herself. I have a sneaking feeling that she's the Gertrude who sent the candy."

According to the established custom of roommates, Shrimp and Bill Scudder exchanged the second dance.

"I believe we were talking about names when we were interrupted," Miss Huntley began, as soon as they whirled off together to the tune of "Evelyn." "You're going to tell me about that Gertrude, from White Plains?"

"I was," Shrimp answered, "but I've concluded not to do it until you tell me your name."

"Well, compromise!" She threw back her head and smiled up at him. "You tell me the story first, and then maybe I'll solve the mystery."

"Two days ago," Shrimp began, "I received a box of candy from White Plains. In it was a note from a girl named Gertrude."

"And old flame, perhaps?"

"No, I haven't any old flames." He shook his head positively.

"What did the girl say in the note?"

"That she'd see me at the dance."

"And you haven't seen her yet?"

"I don't know," Shrimp's eyes questioned her. "What do you think?"

"Oh! I think you'll meet her, all right," she hummed softly. "This is a wonderful dance, isn't it?"

The music stopped, and Shrimp led his partner to the porch of the gymnasium.

"You haven't told me your name," he reminded her.

"Did I promise to tell you?" There was a teasing light in her eyes.

"You just bet you did. You promised to tell me your first name."

him.
"I don't know."
"What? You don't know?"
"Yes, I actually don't." Shrimp smiled slightly at her too evident amusement.
"Strange, isn't it?"

AMERICA FIRST.

The president's speech on Wednesday at the foot of Washington's monument is a keynote that promises to overshadow everything else in the campaign.

"There are those at this moment," said he, "who are trying to levy a species of political blackmail, saying, 'Do what we wish in the interest of foreign sentiment, or we will wreak our vengeance at the polls.'"

It requires a man, a fearless man, to disclose a vital danger. The republican candidate for president is notoriously engaged in flirting with the elements which demand that the interests of some other country shall be given precedence, and has justified the Rooseveltian description of him as "a viceroy of an alien government."

Thus the issue is squarely made:
America first as against some other power first.

This country has reason, over and over again, to congratulate itself upon the fact that in the greatest crisis of the world, the pilot at the helm recognizes no flag as his own but the American flag.

The fire loss in Texas since January 1 has been about $20,000,000, or an average of $4 for every man, woman and child in the state. This is twice as much as is needed to run the state government. The people, who have the bill to pay, shoulder a heavy burden in the heavy fire waste, 75 per cent of which is preventable, according to the experts.

Submission will carry easily if the issue is understood by the voters. A vote for submission is merely a vote in favor of letting the people pass on the question of statewide prohibition, at a special election to be held next year.
Many antis, who believe in the rule of the people, will vote "aye" on that proposal.

Bryan gives it out that he will make an active campaign for the success of Wilson. This will sadly disappoint some folks who profess to support the democratic ticket, but whose contributions to its cause consist mainly of lamentations and prognostications.

Bryan is all right, and the mulligrubs will never get him.

The Houston Post indignantly calls it a case of intolerance because that crowd of pros at Fort Worth expressed the opinion that the democratic party in Texas should use an adding machine which knows that two and two make four.

The senatorial planetary is somewhat mixed, but the ordinary observer can tell, without a telescope, that the Brooks star is leading the procession and the Colquitt comet has lost pretty much all of its caudal appendage.

"Now let us all go out and catch progressives," was a sententious suggestion of Mr. Bryan at St. Louis. Will somebody please hand Billy the bait can?

Deposits in national banks were increased by $341,000,000 between March 7 and May 1. The day of prosperity is at hand, and Texas should have all the lights burning to welcome it.

"I should say it was. How do you explain it?"
"I'll tell you all about it," he announced, "if you'll tell me your first name."
But Shrimp was doomed to disappointment, for at that psychological moment Bill Scudder, his roommate, appeared on the scene.

"If you want to get to the dance on time," he advised Miss Huntley, "you'd better start getting dressed now."
"All right," she answered, "I'll hurry."
And, flashing a bright smile at Shrimp,
she was gone.

"I always thought that Bill Scudder was a good fellow," Shrimp recollected,
"but now I'm a little doubtful." He glanced followed his roommate, who had gone to the spacious porch of the fraternity house. "I might ask him what her name is," he thought suddenly. "But no," he concluded, "I'll make her tell me herself. I have a sneaking feeling that she's the Gertrude who sent the candy."

According to the established custom of roommates, Shrimp and Bill Scudder exchanged the second name of the girl.

"I believe we were talking about names when we were interrupted," Miss Huntley began, as soon as they whirled off together to the tune of "Evelyn." "You were going to tell me about that Gertrude, from White Plains."
"I was," Shrimp answered, "but I've concluded not to do it until you tell me your name."

"We'll compromise," she threw back her head and smiled up at him. "You tell me the story first, and then maybe I'll solve the mystery."

"Two days ago," Shrimp began, "I received a box of candy from White Plains.
In it was a note from a girl named Gertrude."
"And old flame, perhaps,"

"No, I haven't any old flames." He shook his head positively.

"What did the girl say in the note?"
"That she'd seen me at the dance."
"And you haven't seen her yet?"
"I don't know," Shrimp's eyes questioned her. "What do you think?"

"Oh, I think you'll meet her, all right,"
she hummed softly. "This is a wonderful dance, isn't it?"
"Yes."

The music stopped, and Shrimp led his partner to the porch of the gymnasium.

"You haven't told me your name," he reminded her.

"Did I promise to tell you?" There was a teasing light in her eyes.
"You just bet you did. You promised to tell me your first name."
"What?" She hesitated, and the music for the next dance floated out to them.
"Oh!" Shrimp's face registered disappointment. "Honest Indian?"
"Honest and true," she looked at him with mock seriousness. "Are you dreadfully disappointed?"

As the case stands, Governor Colquitt will have to pay for that chicken salad. Alas, why didn't he stick to ham and eggs?

In his address to the graduates of Georgetown university, Mr. Taft made a thoroughly democratic speech for preparedness. Even Hughes may finally vote to make it unanimous.

The great question is whether the Colonel has suddenly been attacked by paralysis of the tongue or paresis of the pencil.

Texas Siftings

Labor unionism in Dallas will receive a big boost tonight when the largest number of workers that ever started a union in this city will get together. The new union, which is composed of every type of vehicle in the city, from grocery and laundry wagon employees to jitney men, and will start with an enrollment of 200. As there are more than 2,000 men in the city eligible to this union, it is destined to become the largest in Dallas. The only other union which could approach it in size is Carpenters' local No. 198, which has 750 members.

A series of three benefit dances at Lake Erie this summer are being planned by a committee of Port Worth women for the purpose of raising a

A small child stopped all activities at Akard and Main streets, Dallas, on Tuesday afternoon when it caught its tiny shoe in the street car track on Main street. The shoe would not budge, and the terrified mother, who was hurried with the baby to the sidewalk. The shoe was rescued by the traffic officer and returned.

A local stock company has been formed in Mart, with a capital of $25,000, to supply natural gas to the steam plants of that city.

Marlin is preparing to stage a preparedness pageant on Friday, June 23, and invites her neighbors of other towns and of adjoining counties to join in the event, which is to emphasize the loyalty to our country, our county and our towns.

Reports have been received by the state game commissioner's department, Austin, that many thousands of white plovers have invaded the Rio Grande country and as a result, material damage has been done to growing grain crops. These birds have come from Mexico in search of food and the farmers in that portion of the state do not know how to get rid of the birds.
While it is likely to be an infraction of the state game law to kill these birds, under present circumstances it is not probable, according to officers of the game commissioner's department, that prosecutions would follow, as these birds may be classed as depredatory.

The Producers company brought in a gas well southeast of Vernon Tuesday with a daily production of 25,000

be brought in recently.

A pageant of Methodism, representing the rise and growth of American Methodism, will be given some time in September through the collaboration of all the Methodist churches of the city of Dallas, according to an announcement made Wednesday. The first meeting of those interested will be held at the Methodist Publishing house Monday at 10 o'clock. Several hundred actors will be required to take the parts of the characters in the pageant.

Information concerning the methods of conducting a municipal employment bureau was requested by the Seattle chamber of commerce in a letter to the Fort Worth bureau.

Aubrey Campbell was seriously wounded in an automobile accident in Lockhart in the first accident there of the summer season. His companion was not injured.

"Yes," "Shrimp" spoke dejectedly. "I had set my heart on your being Gertrude."
"And you thought I had sent you the candy?"
"I had begun to hope so."

"Well, I'm sorry," she smiled.
"You don't look so."
Bill Scudder, glancing through the open door, saw them.

"This is my dance, Gertrude," he called.
"So it is! Good-bye, Mr. Black." She chuckled as she noted "Shrimp's" look of amazement. "I'll see you at the nineteenth dance," she added.

"Shrimp" watched until Scudder and the girl had disappeared. "Some one is having a lot of fun with me," he told himself.

He waited impatiently for the nineteenth dance to come around. Occasionally his eyes met those of Miss Huntley. In his was a question; in hers, mocking amusement. But, finally,
the evening wore away, and he found himself dancing with her again.

"Will you please tell me what your first name really is?" he asked.

She looked at him soberly.

"On my honor," she answered, "my first name is Doris."
"Then why did Bill call you Gertrude?"

"That's a secret," she smiled mischievously.

Shrimp was silent for a time.

"You surely are having a good time tonight," he said.

"I surely am."

"What do you want to know?" she asked.

"Why did Bill call you Gertrude?"
"Because that's what all my friends call me," she hesitated a moment. "My name is Doris Gertrude Huntley."
"Oh!" Shrimp's face cleared. "And are you the girl who sent me the candy?"

"Yes. It was Bill's idea, he wanted to tease you."

MARLIN VISITED BY ELECTRICAL STORM

RAINFALL OF MORE THAN ONE

GREATLY.

Waco Boosters Invade Hot Water City.
County Superintendent Leaves for College Station.

Marlin, June 14.—The business section of Marlin was taken by surprise this morning at 8:25 when the special Y. M. B. L. train of Waco and the Cotton Palace boosters reached this city. There was no reception committee at the depot, but the Waco delegation quickly formed in procession order and, headed by the band, went down Live Oak street, calling out business men from every section.
When they left a large part of the business men of the city were wishing them a fine trip to East Texas.

This morning about 2 o'clock a heavy rain struck the city, accompanied by an electrical storm. No damage has been reported. The rainfall reached one and one-half inches.

Agricultural Agent Chaney advises that almost 1,000 head of cattle have been dipped in this precinct during the last four days, in new dipping vats, constructed in accordance with the latest government plans. The largest number dipped in one vat were 575 on the Rice-Bartlett farm, where 575 were rendered tickless by two successive mornings work.

Woodland dipped seventy head of cows and twenty calves under the new plan on his place near Reagan at a cost of only $7 under the new plan.

County Superintendent G. A. Pringle left today for College Station, where he will spend the next two weeks instructing in the summer normal. Mr.
Pringle has been instructing in the Baylor normal during former vacations.

A wedding of much interest to the society folks of Marlin was that last night, when at the residence of the bride's parents at Blue Ridge, Miss Minnie Brothers, daughter of John Brothers, was united in marriage by Dr. R. R.
Crockett of Stranger. They were rushed to Marlin after the ceremony and reception by friends in autos who brought the happy couple to the cozy little cottage home on Gift street which had been prepared by the groom for his bride.

The couple leave tomorrow for Odds to visit for a few days the parents of the groom.

T. K. Morris, the new instructor in agricultural science for the Marlin high school, is now in Marlin. He comes to this city from Valley Mills, succeeding R. B. Harris, who is now with the Denton normal college.

The following Waco people are registered at Marlin hotels: D. Hamphire and wife, P. G. Taylor, C. L. McDonald, George Inness, George W. Irvin Jr.

Miss Ivy Johnson of Temple and Miss Della Robinson of Bartlett are guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Johnson.

Mrs. Tom Padgett of Waco is in Marlin on a visit to her sister, Mrs.
J. C. Shaw.

abilities, $9,070.

Appeal Is Filed in Perkins Case

Austin, June 15.—Appeal in the case of F. D. Perkins, from Collin county, in which the constitutionality of what is known as the eight-hour law with reference to public works is attacked, was filed today in the court of criminality appeals. It will not be submitted until October, as the court will adjourn June 24 for its summer vacation of three months. The eight-hour act was passed by the regular session of the thirty-third legislature.

Stock Company Organized in Mart

Mart, June 15.—A local stock company has been organized here under the name of the Mart Pipe Line company to furnish gas to the oil mills, grain, compresses, etc. Application is pending for a charter. The stockholders are to be J. R. Gilliam, W. P. Shelton, J. H. Punchard, J. Lee Harlan, C.
A. Moroney, Earl B. Smyth, W. M. Marley, John Ed. Punchard and Jay Sewell.

Mass Meeting in Gatesville.
Gatesville, June 15.—There has been held a call with several signatures, calling a mass meeting of all parties who favor the submission of a prohibition amendment to meet at the court house Saturday at 2 o'clock p. m. to organize and discuss plans of campaign to carry the proposition.

Aquilla Lodge Elects.
Aquilla, June 15.—Aquilla lodge No.
644, A. F. and A. M., has elected the following officers for the ensuing year:
J. E. Lamb, worshipful master; C. F.
Hered, senior warden; T. D. Thompson, junior warden; J. T. Young, secretary; E. R. O'Byrd, treasurer; J. V.
Callan, senior deacon; D. O. Light, junior deacon; J. R. May, clerk; G.
P. Bennett, worshipful master; C. B.
Mays, chaplain.

Installation of officers will be had at next regular meeting.

Young Children Stage and Direct Unique Playlet

What was probably the most novel entertainment ever seen in Waco was staged last night on the library lawn.
It was a playlet, which was chosen,
rehearsed and directed by children under 13 years of age.

"A Vision of Youth" was the name of the performance, and it was directed by Martha Henshaw, aged 13; Chloe Brazelton and Dorothy Bell. The idea, according to Miss Henshaw, was gotten from a back issue of a magazine, and its first trial was last summer when a sum of about $25 was netted from a double performance of a play, the money going to Miss Laura Edwards, the public health nurse.

This year this year was on a larger scale, and the parents of the children, seeing that the attempts were passing child caliber, took some of the matters into their hands, and arranged for the lighting of the lawn and other details. The one performance of last night was attended by more than 100 persons and netted $27.15 for the one performance. The admission charged was 25c.

The youth of the players, who ranged from 13 to 3 years of age, made the attraction of special interest, and the players were bizarre and fantastic, but their interest was due to the fact that most of them had been made by the players themselves. The performance this year was for the benefit of the Y. W. C. A. and some of the players who were dressed as A. B. C. blocks appropriately bore the letters "Y. W.
C. A."

To Miss Henshaw goes much of the credit for the success of the performance, for it was she who originated the idea and took on the bulk of the directing, especially for the first performance by the "company." The plays

Severe Rains and Storm Passed Over
Gatesville Area

Gatesville, June 15.—A very severe rain and electrical storm passed over the county last night and in some portions there was severe hail and in others severe wind storm.

In the Arnett country the wind developed almost a cyclone. Several houses were blown from foundations and the one was blown to pieces occupied by Henry Koestler. He is reported to be seriously injured, also a sister that lives with him. The remaining members of the family escaped with only slight bruises.

On the state farm the corn crop is reported entirely destroyed by hail. It seems from reports coming to town that a strip from three to four miles wide running through the county suffered from hail damage. On Greenbrier creek and Corryell creek mountains east of town, report the most destruction, where windows of houses were smashed, the crops destroyed and chickens and turkeys were killed. In some places it is reported that hail drifted 15 inches deep.

The hail in town was light and did very little damage. A great many telephones were put out of commission by the lightning and the manager of the telephone system says "they hit pretty hard."

It is hard from reports to estimate the damage, but it is very heavy.

Wind Velocity Record Broken

All records were broken for sustained wind velocity here Wednesday night, when a rate of forty-four miles was reached and sustained for nearly two minutes, according to the instruments of Dr. Isador Block, the News weather man.

The nearest approach to this record was during the Galveston flood last August when the wind here reached a velocity of thirty-five and forty miles. The wind went much higher, reaching the sixty-mile speed, but this was only in sporadic gusts, lasting only a few seconds.

Although forty-four was the highest maintained speed reached by the wind on Wednesday night, at other times it rushed past at the rate of forty miles for ten consecutive minutes.

Texas Fairs Ass'n.
Meets Today

There will be a meeting of the executive committee of the Texas Fair's association at the office of the presenting of the Fair's association at 10 o'clock this morning.

The principal thing that will come before the committee will be the forming of a program for the next general meeting of the Fair's association, which will be in about ten days or two weeks.

Different Story Is Told About Scenery at Pharr

Waco, Texas, June 15, 1916.
To the News:

Your issue of the Morning News under date of June 13 was sent to me, calling my attention especially to a letter by one C. A. Blessington of Company K, now at Pharr, Texas, which comes out under the very startling and sensational heading "Lizards, Rattlesnakes, Cactus, Constitute All Pharr's Scenery." We would be inclined to pass this up as coming from some young school boy trying to his sweet-heart back at Waco were it not for the fact that this letter discloses the fact that it was addressed to the honorable and highly appreciated mayor of Waco, and evidently turned in by him to the Morning News for publication, and the further fact that the Morning News has always taken a very prominent and widely circulated place in the news of our state, and owing to the very high standard the News has always carried as being on the right side and standing for truth and the suppression of crime and wrong, and for this reason we deem it wise to ask you to publish the facts as existing at Pharr today.

Pharr is located in the center of 45,000 acres of irrigated land on the St. Louis and Brownsville road in the center of Hidalgo county, which has now something over 30,000 acres that is handled by actual settlers and watered from an irrigated system on which there has been expended $1,350,000, and that the town of Pharr although only three years old, has a population of 1,300 people. It has a mixed feed and elevator plant, thoroughly equipped with new machinery and driven by electric motors through-out, that has cost over $75,000. It has an electric light and ice plant which cost $50,000, and a First National bank of $25,000 capital stock and carries over $100,000 on deposit, being located in what is known as a bank building used for the general office of the Canal company and postoffice that cost $15,000. A hotel that is splendidly equipped and well managed by George F. Lincoff, who is also mayor of the town of Pharr that cost $15,000; it also has a $40,000 high school and a $6,000 preparatory school, both running at full capacity; and last but not least, a $7,000 church and parsonage, mission style, furnished with pews throughout, good organ, and has preaching twice every Sunday.

The grounds of this church are beautifully decorated with Bermuda grass, palms and oleanders, and had our young friend from Waco been as questioning the house of worship, as above described, and other places of civic neatness and attraction, we are constrained to believe he would have seen and found other things in Pharr than "lizards, rattlesnakes and cactus."

Not to boast, but only to let the public know, through your paper, in our patriotic feeling for anything that pertains to the United States and the comfort of the soldiers who had so nobly volunteered their services to come at the call of the governor, who deemed it wise to station them on the border between Texas and Mexico, that we went to the expense of putting electric lights in each boy's tent, furnishing them with lumber to floor their tents to make it as homelike as a soldier's life could possibly be, and the further fact that they were furnished at the expense of the town of Pharr, free water, ice and wood, until the generosity of the people of Pharr was so noted that the United States government, through its officers located among us, said that such accommodation was too much to be accepted gratis by the United States, and that they would pay for same in future.

Please allow me to state that in my humble connection with the town of Pharr and this immediate irrigated section, that I have made it my life work for the past six years to help establish and build up and carry, free from all that is hurtful and harmful, for those seeking homes and fortune in the best country in the United States could do under advantages not so pioneering as these rich suggestions of profit are usually made under. So, in carrying out this thought, we have caused to be put in all of our deeds to property and lots in the town of Pharr the prohibition clause, and I blush to mention the fact that this one thing, held up as a target for those who were looking for other than churches and Sunday schools, but they rather have a disposition to see, in their imagination only, caused from visits to adjoining towns, rattlesnakes, lizards and cactus; and so not to be tedious or long, I beg to state that in one day's visit to my son on a fishing trip on Hog creek near Waco, I found more snakes and lizards than I have found in Pharr or surrounding territory in seven years.

And as to something that referred to the sensational letter from Mr. C. A. Blessington of Company K, I want to invite the editor of the Morning News and our honorable Mayor to visit us and stop at a good hotel and see some of the magnificent cane and alfalfa fields, cane fields that the sugar investors from New York City, with a view to the sugar industry, have offered us, even at this early part of the season, $100 per acre for same, paying $50 per acre cash in advance, which offer has been accepted only now on the ground.

And then sit for a while on the wide verandas of the hotel and inhale the fragrance of the bloom of the chrysanthemums, listening to the and clear tones of the mocking birds that will carry them back to their boyhood days, and enjoy the breezes fresh from the Gulf of Mexico that will make them think and feel that under such surroundings life is really worth the while, and then, under such conditions decide whether or not they think that our mayor and the surrounding country justice by publishing the letter above referred to without full knowledge of the real conditions.

Yours very truly,
JNO. C. KELLY.

Waco C. C. Arousing Interest of Farmers in Pigs and Peanuts

The Waco Chamber of Commerce is arousing interest in the farmers of this and adjoining counties in the production of peanuts and hogs by the boys of the country, according to Geo. S. Bruce of Houston, the industrial and immigration agent of the International and Great Northern railway, station at the day in Waco yesterday.

Mr. Bruce said that specifications were being drawn up by the state Agricultural and Mechanical college for three warehouses of great size, which might be used by the farmers for storing potatoes through the season when there was a small demand and consequently a low price for the potatoes. These warehouses, said Mr. Bruce, are of 15,000, 30,000 and 500 bushels in their capacity and are the latest thing in warehouses. Mr. Bruce's hobby is the increase of the productivity of the country, and is in keeping with his slogan "Potatoes, Pigs, Peanuts, Prosperity and Plenty."

Call Meeting by Association of Pastors Issued

Rev. H. H. Street, president of the Waco pastors' association, has issued a call for a meeting of the association at the Y. M. C. A. building at 3 p. m. Saturday. The meeting will be called to discuss the proposition that Dr. Wilbur Chapman has made to the association in regard to assisting in a proposed union meeting of the churches here.

It was stated by an officer of the association last night that Dr. Chapman will probably be brought here some time during the coming year.

Business in Waco Postoffice Makes Good Showing

A statement of the postal receipts of the Waco postoffice for May, 1916, has just been made up by Postmaster C. B. McCollum, this statement being designed for the authorities at Washington, D. C., and the showing for the month is one which is creditable for the Waco postoffice and is optimistic in its bearing on the general business situation, indicating that there is a steady upcurrent working upward.

The report shows the receipts for May, 1916, were $14,062, as against $11,173 for May, 1915, this being an increase for May of the present year over May of last year of about 25 per cent.

The parcel post business is making a wonderful showing also, the increase being very noticeable.

Second Dance at Casino Successful

The dance at Cameron Park Casino last night was well attended, though it was only the second one of the season. The previous one was handicapped by a rain on the preceding day. The music last night was furnished by Gladden orchestra. The coolness and pleasantness of the afternoon had a tendency to draw a crowd which remained till late exhibiting their zeal and talent for the art of dancing.

China Springs to Have Picnic on 24th

A. L. M. Amos of China Springs spent yesterday in Waco, and while here was telling friends and the public about a big picnic which is planned for that section on June 24, Saturday.

The whole China Springs neighborhood will join in the picnic, dinner will be had on the grounds and the well known hospitality of the China Springs section will be at the front again.

All candidates are invited to be present, and many have already stated that they will be there. The China Springs nine and the nine of Valley Mills, this promising plenty of interest. There will be amusement for all, and the day will bring together many friends of the China Springs neighborhood and other sections.

Higginson Building Being Improved

A building on Austin avenue, between Seventh and Eighth streets, south side of the street and about midway of the block, is being extended to the alley at the rear, while a new and modern front is being added, work having commenced.

The building belongs to Capt. C. H. Higginson, and has been leased to the Sherwin-Williams Paint company for a term of years. The improvements in the structure will be noteworthy, as the addition in the rear will be brand-new, while the front will be one of the most modern in the city.

There will be interior improvements, also, and it will be almost like a new structure when completed.

Local Officer to Push Recruiting

Orders were received Wednesday by Capt. W. B. Weisener of the local army recruiting station to send on all accepted applications to the recruiting depot, Fort Sam Houston, Texas, for enlistment, instead of to Fort Logan, Colorado, as had been the custom. This order, which comes from headquarters, includes all men except those joining for the signal corps, who will still be sent to Fort Logan for instruction and training.

Efforts are being put forth to increase the enlistments during the summer. Visits will be made to Comstock, Marlin, Temple, Taylor and Hillsboro in order to further the advertising.

The Doctor's Advice

by Dr. Lewis Baker

The questions answered below are general in character, the symptoms or diseases are given and the answers will apply in any case of similar nature.

Those wishing further advice free may address Dr. Lewis Baker, College Blvd., College-Eldwood Sts., Dayton, O., enclosing self-addressed stamped envelope for reply. Full name and address must be given, but only initials or fictitious name will be used in my answers. The prescriptions can be filled at any well stocked drugstore. Any druggist can order of wholesaler.

of Druggists supply in sealed tubes, with full directions.

Miss C. W. R. asks: "I have tried for two years to diet so as to increase my weight and improve the quality of my blood, but in vain. Please prescribe for me?"

Answer: Thin, scrawny, bloodless people need assistance in absorbing nutrition from the food eaten and for this particular purpose always prescribe three-grain hypo-nutrient tablets, a most effective preparation if regularly and persistently used, as it seems to increase the red and white corpuscles of the blood, thus affecting health, strength and increased weight.

M. J. B. asks: "My hair is too oily and my scalp itches with dandruff, and of late it is coming out too much. What is a good treatment?"

Answer: Obtain plain yellow minoxy from your druggist in 4-oz. jars and apply as per directions. This cleans, purifies, cools and invigorates the hair and scalp, thus stopping the death of the hair. Dandruff and itching are at once relieved. Men and women all over the country now use it regularly.

"Essex" writes: "What should I do to relieve a severe case of kidney and bladder disease? Urine is dark, foul of color, and passage is irregular, painful, etc. Have depression, fever, chills, pains like rheumatism, and soreness in region of bladder."

Answer: For such symptoms as you describe I prescribe my favorite formula under the name of balmwort tablets. This is a splendidly efficacious remedy for such abnormal conditions. Begin their use as per directions on each sealed tube. (Advertisement)

BEAR PASSENGERS AND CREW MOSTLY ACCOUNTED FOR NOW

Eureka, Cal., June 15.—According to a check made tonight by a committee of the Chamber of Commerce here in charge of survivors of the wrecked steamer Bear, 204 of the 210 persons comprising the vessel's passengers and crew have been accounted for. The figures showed that there were 171 persons from the Bear in Eureka; it was estimated that twenty-seven were being cared for in the towns of Ferndale and Capetown and five are known to be dead.

Rumor Says Gavira Executed by Mexicans on Treason Charge

El Paso, Texas, June 15.—A report that General Gabriel Gavira was tried, convicted and executed for high treason immediately upon his arrival at Mexico City, where he had been summoned from Juarez by Minister of War Obregon, became current in El Paso tonight, although it was pronounced absurd by the Mexican consul and vice consul in El Paso and at the Mexican army headquarters in Juarez. General Trevino, commander-in-chief of Northern Mexico, at Chihuahua City a few days ago officially announced his repudiation of any agreement that General Gavira may have made with General Pershing in relation to the military co-operation. This news immediately started a report here that Gavira had been summoned to Mexico City to explain his part in the meeting with the American commander which took place at Casas Grandes a fortnight ago.

K C Marble Pudding

By Mrs. Janet McKenzie Hill, Editor of the Boston Cooking School Magazine.

2 cups sifted pastry flour; 2 level teaspoonsful K C Baking Powder; 1/2 teaspoonful cinnamon; 1/2 teaspoonful salt; yolks of 2 eggs, beaten light; 1 cup sugar; 4 tablespoonsful melted butter; 1 cup cold water; whites of 2 eggs, beaten dry; 1/2 ounces melted chocolate.

Sift together, three times, the flour, baking powder, salt and cinnamon. To the yolks add the sugar, butter and water, and stir into the dry ingredients. Add the whites of the eggs. Divide the mixture into two parts and add the chocolate to one part. Dispose the two parts in a buttered mold to give a marbled appearance. Steam forty-five minutes.

Vanilla Sauce

Boil 2 cups of sugar and a cup of water six minutes; add 2 tablespoonsful of butter and a teaspoonful of vanilla extract.

Orpet's Fate Seems to Hinge on Form of Cyanide Used

Waukegan, Ill., June 15.—A point said to be unique in the history of criminal jurisprudence was brought up today at the trial of Wm. H. Orpet, the university student charged with the murder of Marion Lambert. It was: Is the moisture produced by introducing a frozen body into a warm room sufficient to transform powdered cyanide of potassium into a solution light enough to lose its visibility? Dr. Ralph V. Webster, a toxicologist of international reputation, introduced as a witness for the state, testified that he knew of no record ever having been taken of such circumstances. Whether the cyanide of potassium which caused Marion's death was administered in liquid or crystal form is regarded by both sides in determining the precise manner of her death. The state contends that it was a solution; the defense that it was finely powdered crystals. While commercial cyanide of potassium was accessible to both Orpet and Marion it is contended by the state that the alleged purchase of a two-ounce bottle by Orpet at Madison, Wis., is a circumstance tilting the scale against Orpet.

Speakers Decide Against National Prohibition Plank

When the Waco Speakers' club met in the Chamber of Commerce suite last evening the following program was carried out.

Question for debate, "Resolved, that the democratic party should adopt a plank for national prohibition." Affirmative speakers were Cecil E. McGuffin and E. S. Morris, while the negative was upheld by Ed Johnston and P. C. Wiley. The judges decided in favor of the negative. The club telegraphed the result of the debate to Governor Ferguson, who is now in St. Louis in attendance at the democratic convention.

Several new men were elected to membership in the club. The club also voted to challenge the debating club of West to a joint debate.

Program Committee Chairman A. C. Johnston announced the following program for next Thursday evening:

Orator by C. H. Babbs.

Debate upon "Resolved, that the demands of railroads train crews for an eight-hour day and time and a half pay for overtime should be complied with." Affirmative J. W. Walker and W. R. Anderson; negative Oscar Adair and C. Allen. All railroad men in the city interested in this question are cordially invited to attend this meeting.

Several visitors were in attendance, being T. O. Stewart, advertising manager of the Famous, and Dr. Lemby. Speakers Ginsburg, Gaunt and Mitchell acted as judges. Connoisseurs' report of A. C. Johnston was heard with interest.

F. Arthur Johnson's Pupils Give Recital

A recital given by pupils from the piano classes of F. Arthur Johnson at Goggan's music hall last night at 8 o'clock was one of the heaviest ever given in Waco by a class of students. All numbers were well played, and appreciated by a packed house. The Schulloff Grand Valse Brillant, Op. 60 (arranged for thirty-six hands), and Martini Whirlwind, Op. 22 (arranged for fifty hands), were great items of interest. The audience seemed to like this particularly, it being something unusual for Waco's recitals. The whole program was a success and showed the painstaking work of the director, as well as the diligence of the pupils.

Every chair in the house was taken and even standing room was in demand, the house being literally packed. A larger auditorium could have been used to advantage.

What the Soldiers Like-- Girls, It's Sweets! Get Busy

"Candy, home-made cakes, and sweets are the things that are most appreciated by the soldiers on the border as gifts from home," said Lieut. J. P. Dewberry, who has just returned from Mercedes near the Mexican frontier.

Novels of any length are not appreciated by the soldiers, he said, as their time is mostly taken up with drilling, and other forms of "preparedness." What they like best in the reading line is short stories or magazines—something that they can read in one "setting."

Another thing that they like well enough to fight for is newspapers from home. Lieutenant Dewberry says that when a few papers come from the home town of the soldiers they will scrap for it with such determination that by the time it has passed through the hands of two or three of the victors it is so torn that it can hardly be read. Notwithstanding this condition those who get the paper will read carefully every line, devouring the news of things and people they know.

Many copies of this issue of the News is being sent to "our boys" at Camp Pharr so that they can get the fresh news of what their parents, sweethearts, or friends are doing back home.

The next shipment of "goodies" for Pharr will leave here Saturday night at 8 o'clock and arrive in time for

Monday's desert. The shipments are being made regularly by the Wells-Fargo free of charge, and the collection of the packages is being made at several points in the downtown district. They are Sangers, Goldstein, Migels, The Famous and Freund's Cigar store. Any package that is desired to be sent any of the Waco boys at Pharr can be left at any of these points, at any time before about 7 o'clock Saturday afternoon, and will be packed in large boxes and collected by the Wells-Fargo and sent free of any cost to the sender.

Very few packages were brought to the concentration points yesterday afternoon, but large quantities are expected today and tomorrow, when cookies, candies, and the kind of pies "that mother used to make" will be baked fresh in order that they may arrive in prime condition. By following this method, perishable foods can be sent without the slightest danger of spoiling en route.

Oh! Yes! Lieutenant Dewberry said that for a fried chicken from home any man in the regiment would risk a courtmartial in getting it. He also said that a quieter and less demonstrative joy was caused by a real newsy and cheerful letter from the home folks. The time of the soldier is mostly absorbed with his duties, but he likes as many letters as he can get, even though he does not have time to answer them all.

Free Stereopticon Lecture at Baylor Proves Interesting

The stereopticon lecture in Carroll chapel on China and Japan which was held last night proved a very attractive introduction to the summer series.

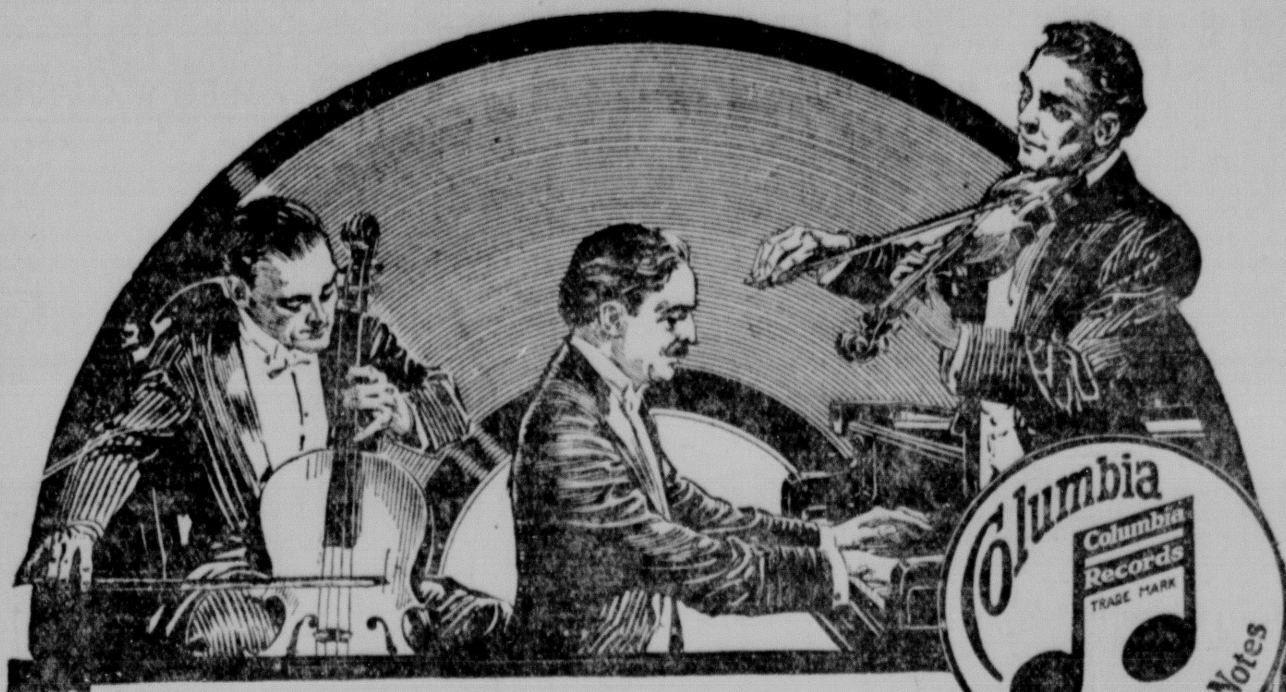

E. W. Provance began by telling of the route which is usually taken by travelers and tourists to the Orient. Then followed an explanation of the many beautiful views of the scenery of the island empire of Japan. Pictures were shown of the many types of people, nobles, scholars, students, merchants, fishermen, beggars and even lepers, and were followed by the views of the gardens and fine homes of the wealthy; the huts and rice fields of the peasant class, and the scenes which the river people and the fishermen pass all of their lives. Many of the places and conditions shown were ones with which Mr. Provance was intimately acquainted, and he held the close attention of the audience of several hundred students and people from the city by relating anecdotes and incidents taken from his personal experiences.

The lecture was the first of the series of stereopticon lectures which are to be given on the college campus, but it was given in Carroll chapel, since the recent rains made the campus too damp and cool for comfort. When the weather is favorable the lectures will always be given on the campus.

The next of the series of summer entertainments, a story hour under the direction of Miss Lillie Martin, which was to have been held on the campus tonight, has been postponed because of the fact that a general reception is to be given for the students in the summer school and normal. All of

El Paso, Texas, June 15.—A report that General Gabriel Gavira was tried, convicted and executed for high treason immediately upon his arrival at Mexico City, where he had been summoned from Juarez by Minister of War Obregon, became current in El Paso tonight, although it was pronounced absurd by the Mexican consul and vice consul in El Paso and at the Mexican army headquarters in Juarez.

Marble Pudding

Steamed puddings will not be heavy if made with K C Baking Powder and cooked slowly to give the pudding time to rise before the dough is cooked through. Have a low blaze under the water for at least one hour fifteen minutes.

K C Marble Pudding

By Mrs. Janet McKenzie Hill, Editor of the Boston Cooking School Magazine.

2 cups sifted pastry flour; 2 level teaspoonfuls K C Baking Powder; 1/2 teaspoonful cinnamon; 1/2 teaspoonful salt; 1/2 cup of eggs, beaten light; 1/2 cup sugar; 1/2 cup cold water; 1/2 cup of eggs, beaten dry; 1/2 ounces melted chocolate.

Sift together, three times, the flour, baking powder, salt and cinnamon. To the dry ingredients add the sugar, and stir into the dry ingredients. Add the whites of the eggs. Divide the mixture into two parts and add the chocolate to one part. Disposithe two parts in a buttered mold to give a marbled appearance. Steam forty-five minutes.

Vanilla Sauce

Boil 2 cups of sugar and a cup of water six minutes; add 2 tablespoonfuls of butter and a teaspoonful of vanilla extract.

What the Soldiers Like-- Girls, It's Sweets! Get Busy

"Candy, home-made cakes, and sweets are the things that are most appreciated by the soldiers on the border as gifts from home," said Lieut. J. P. Dewberry, who has just returned from Mercedes near the Mexican frontier.

Novels of any length are not appreciated by the soldiers, he said, as their time is mostly taken up with drilling, and other forms of "preparation." What they like best in the reading line is short stories or magazines—something that they can read in one "setting."

Another thing that they like well enough to fight for is newspapers from home. Lieut. Dewberry says that when a few papers come from the home town of the soldiers they will scrap for it with such determination that by the time it has passed through the hands of two or three of the victors it is so torn that it can hardly be read. Notwithstanding this condition those who get the paper will read carefully every line, devouring the news of things and people they know.

Many copies of this issue of the News is being sent to "our boys" at Camp Pharr so that they can get the fresh news of what their parents, sweethearts, or friends are doing back home.

The next shipment of "goodies" for Pharr will leave here Saturday night at 8 o'clock and arrive in time for

Monday's desert. The shipments are being made regularly by the Wells-Fargo free of charge, and the collection of the packages is being made at several points in the downtown district. They are Samuels, Goldstein, Migels, The Famous and Freund's Cigar store. Any package that is desired to be sent any of the Waco boys at Pharr can be left at any of these points, at any time before about 7 o'clock Saturday afternoon, and will be packed in large boxes and collected by the Wells-Fargo and sent free of any cost to the sender.

Very few packages were brought to the concentration points yesterday afternoon, but large quantities are expected today and tomorrow, when cookies, candies, and the kind of pies that mother used to try to make will be baked fresh in order that they may arrive in prime condition. By following this method, perishable foods can be sent without the slightest danger of spoiling en route.

Oh! Yes! Lieut. Dewberry said that for a fried chicken from home any man in the regiment would risk a courtmartial in the celebration. He also said that a quieter and less demonstrative joy was caused by the new and cheerful letter from the home folks. The time of the soldier is mostly absorbed with his duties, but he likes as many letters as he can get, even though he does not have time to answer them all.

There are cotton blooms on his plantation down the Brazos river, states J. E. Horne, and according to this he should have some open cotton about the first of August, as generally speaking it is six weeks from the bloom to the open boll, though it requires a little longer time under certain conditions.

The smoke stack at the Huaco club was blown down by the high wind Wednesday night, while one or two barns in that section of the city likewise succumbed to the heavy wind. A good many telephones were put out of commission, wires were crossed and in some cases burned out, making more work for the already busy linemen and men of the operating department.

The Social Center meeting at the North Waco school will be held next week, and a program of unusual interest is in process of formation. These meetings are highly interesting, and are nearly always well attended.

That boys are turning in false fire alarms is the belief of Fire Chief Ed Bauerle, who has been watching developments in this respect. There is a severe penalty for this, and the boys should be careful not to touch the fire alarms.

WACO PIRATES

NAVIGATORS FAIL TO HIT IN THE PINCHES BEHIND SAGE'S GREAT PITCHING.

DAMAGE NOT DONE UNTIL NINTH

Locals Lead All the Way, but Margin Too Narrow to Tide Them Over.

Free-wee Breaux delivered a blow to Waco fans yesterday that sent a good-sized crowd of men home in a humor that probably caused many a family row, and that got the family dog kicked and the family cat chunked out into the cold back yard, to say nothing of awe-eyed children standing around because papa was cross.

It was a terrible blow, delivered low and from behind when nobody was looking, and it sent Big George Sage to the club house asking Fate what was the use of keeping in perfect condition and taking care of oneself and pitching with all one's might and some other things.

The blow, had it been inflicted on many pitchers, would have sent them straight to the grog shop as soon as they got out of the shower, and by 9 o'clock, they would have been so they didn't care whether school kept or not. But the most emotion Big George displayed was to take his cap off and scratch his head and make the observation:

"Well, I hadn't ought to have lost Elwert."

Can you beat that? No alibi, no holier because his team didn't make him but one run, no recriminations or bellyaching—merely, "Well, I hadn't ought to have lost Elwert."

The News baseball writer doesn't often make predictions in this precarious old national game, but he's going to venture the prognostication that yesterday's game was the first straw that broke the back of the one-run jinx that has been riding the big pitcher since he joined the Nave.

From this day on, when he pitches good ball he'll get what's coming to him, and he'll drop no more games from the nasty flukes that have been beating him.

Sage never looked better and the Nave never looked better. They were the perfect kids from Fred Wohleben, clear around the lot to Red Kuhn; they joked and laughed with each other and played the old game just like the Watson boys play it—like it was to be played. They went and got 'em anywhere the Pirates hit 'em, and Sage was making 'em all hit. The big bug kept himself out of the holes all the way.

For the first eight innings but two Pirates got on, as Johnson made both of the Pirates hits. Sage never walked or hit a man, and the Pirates didn't make anything that looked like an error. Mal and Buddy made remarkable stops and better position than that was a beauty. Jesse James made a hair-raising catch off his shoe.

Sage himself pitched two or three chances in an excellent style. In fact, Johnson was picked off first by Sage after making his first hit, and thus but twenty-five faced Big George in the eight innings.

NAVIGATORS FAIL TO GET RUNS.

The Nave's offense was an unexpected one. In the second inning after James and Tanner had gone out Kuhn walked. Wohleben hit a long double to right, center and Red Kuhn's record straight by sprinting all the way from first to the plate.

Another chance to score came in the fourth after two were down, when Tanner singled to right. Kuhn followed with a clean hit to left. Wohleben, who already had delivered a blow in a pinch, but Balenti, thinking the ball down, Tanner, evidently thinking the Pirates were away, tried to score and was an easy victim at the plate.

Another excellent chance came in the seventh when Tanner started the inning with a walk and was sacrificed by Kuhn. Wohleben, who already had made two hits, couldn't produce, grounding out to Moore. Buddie made third on the play.

Moore showed his good sense by walking Malmquist purposely, as Wilson also displayed human intelligence by not trying to throw Mal out when he stole second. Sage rode him a pretty line drive to right, but Sharrman, who was laying out of position, caught.

Moore also went wild in the eighth and walked Pittle, first man up. Again the powers that were directing the play elected to try a bunt, which was awful. Conwell singled to left, but the ball was so hard-hit that it came to Breaux on one hop before he had reached third, and the runner was stopped, as he should have been. The chances were easily left to one that the Pirates were to win the game, or deliver a long fly on which a fast man like Pittle could score, or else be walked by Sage to fill the bases.

But none of these things happened. Jesse popped a dinky fly back of second. Tanner hit a long fly to center that retired the side scoreless.

When the home club "blowed" that chance in the ninth they "blowed" the game with it. Nobody was working, for Pee-wee Breaux who was coming up hadn't hit a ball out of the infield on his three trips to the plate. He looked mighty diminutive up there. He crouched extra low, to give Sage as small a target as possible, but Big George said the apple right down the slot. Then came the blow. The bat didn't sound particularly loud and the ball started straight up. It looked for a second as if Tanner might catch it.

Otis Crandall, the veteran twirler of the Browns and once known as the "Iron Man" of the New York Giants, is passing on. Sporting Comment

Pirates again today—4:30.

Whose fault was it, anyhow?

Gassers Saturday and Sunday. There it's the road for the Nave until the 6th of July.

That was such an unexpected, such a punk blow, that even the Galveston club looked gloomy about it.

Well, go, damn 'em, if they won't let us win a more close game, let's go to winning some close games. What say?

Fans are fickle critters. The Kaiser got two hits and batted in Waco's only run and everybody hollered because he batted at a bad one in the ninth.

Five 2-to-1 games in the majors and the Texas league yesterday. But there's no doubt that the one at Katy Park came closer to giving the fans heart disease.

Manager Stentell managed the club a la Connie Mack—with a Panama hat. Give Connie Mack a few breaks like Sentell got and he'd win that American pennant yet.

There! It's all off, now. Just as we about had Bill Donovan convinced he ought to work Walters every day, Nunn-maker breaks out again with three hits, including a triple. Turn it.

Houston copped a couple from the Gassers yesterday and while Syd Smith's gang was being chased out of our back yard the Buffaloes themselves crept up a couple of notches. Better watch them there old has been.

Maybe our losing the game influenced that second contest at the Port. If the Oilers could have taken two out of our back yard the Buffaloes themselves crept up a couple of notches. Better watch them there old has been.

That was some marine adventure yesterday. The Hardy Tars sighted the rakish hull of the Pirates' submarine and showed them her classy head. The sub lumbered along in the path of the trim-bulb racer and looked like the tub she is—but just as the Mariners were about to escape, the Pirates as a last desperate shot, launched a torpedo blindly and blooey, blooey.

LORENA 3, HEWITT 2.

Lorena defeated Hewitt 3 to 2 in a fast game at the former place yesterday afternoon. Jones, pitcher for Lorena, struck out twelve men and allowed only two hits. Anderson, for Lorena, scored the winning run in the last half of the ninth by a home run. Batteries, Lorena, Jones and Jones; Hewitt, Kendrick and Kendrick.

Oilers and Panthers Split Double Bill

Fort Worth, June 15.—Beaumont took the first game of a double header here today 6 to 5, Fort Worth winning the second game 1 to 0.

FIRST GAME.

WACO PIRATES

NAVIGATORS FAIL TO HIT IN THE PINCHES BEHIND SAGE'S GREAT PITCHING.

Locals Lead All the Way, but Margin Too Narrow to Tide Them Over.

Free-wee Breaux delivered a blow to Waco fans yesterday that sent a goodly-sized crowd of men home in a humor that probably caused many a family row, and that got the family dog kicked and the family cat chunked out into the cold back yard, to say nothing of awe-eyed children standing around because papa was cross.

It was a terrible blow, delivered low and from behind when nobody was looking, and it sent Big George Sage to the club house asking Fate what was the use of keeping in perfect condition and taking care of oneself and pitching with all one's might and some other things.

The blow, had it been inflicted on many pitchers, would have sent them straight to the grog shop as soon as they got out of the shower, and by 5 o'clock, they would have been so they didn't care whether sauce kept or not. But the most emotion Big George displayed was to take his cap off and scratch his head and make the observation:

"Well, I hadn't ought to have lost Elwert."

Can you beat that? No alibi; no better because his team couldn't make him but one run; no recriminations or bellyaching—merely, "Well, I hadn't ought to have lost Elwert."

The News baseball writer doesn't often make predictions in this precarious old national game, but he's going to venture the prognostication that yesterday's game was the final straw that broke the back of the one-run jinx that has been riding the Big pitcher since he joined the Naves.

From this day on, when he pitches good ball he'll get to winning 10 or 15 games, and he'll drop no more games from the nasty flukes that have been beating him.

Sage never looked better and the Naves never looked better. They were the deeper kids, from Fred Wohlehen clear around the lot to the very end, and they laughed with each other and played the old game just like the Watson boys play it—like it ought to be played. They were not getting any better, but they were getting better, and Sage was making 'em all hit. The big boy kept himself out of the holes all the way.

For the first eight innings but two Pirates got on base—rather, but one Pirate got on, as Johnson made one out, the Pirate hit, and the Naves didn't make anything that looked like an error. Mal and Buddy made some noise, but they were pegged and Conwell made one peg out of position that was a beauty. Jesse James made a hair-raising catch of his shoe-laces. Sage himself felled two or three chances in grand style. In fact, Johnson was ricked off first by Sage after making his first hit, and thus he was easily ten years from being a star.

NAVIGATORS FAIL TO GET RUNS.

The Naves one run was an unexpected one. In the second inning after James and Tanner had gone out Kuhn walked. Wohlehen hit a home run, and the center and field kept the record straight by sprinting all the way from first to the plate.

Another chance to score came in the fourth after two were down, when Tanner singled to right. Kuhn followed with a clean hit to left. Wohlehen, who was delivered a blow in a pinch, but Balenti knocked the ball down. Tanner, evidently thinking the ball had gotten away, tried to score, and was an easy victim at the plate.

Another excellent chance came in the seventh when the Naves were up with a walk and was sacrificed by Kuhn. Wohlehen, who already had made two hits, couldn't produce, grounding out to Moore. Buddy made a good play, but Moore showed his good sense by walking Malmquist purposely, and Wilson also displayed human intelligence by not trying to throw Mal out when he stole second. Sage rose to the emergency in fine style with a pretty line drive to right, but Shannan, who was laying out of position, caught the ball easily.

Moore also went wild in the eighth and walked Bittle. The Naves were directing the play elected to try a bunt, which was successful. Conwell singled to left, but the Naves had had a hit in the eighth. Breaux on one hop batted and reached third and the runner was stopped, as he should have been. The chances were easily ten to one that Jesse James would either hit safe, or deliver a long fly on which a fast man like Moore, who was walking, would have walked to fill the bases. But none of these things happened. Jesse popped a dinky fly back of second. Tanner hit a long fly to center that retired the side scores.

When the home club "blowed" that chance in the ninth, they "blowed" the game with it. Miss Fate, serenely riding her pearl-tinted cloud, smiled sweetly to herself, tucked away the story that always lays just in front of her ear, and took things in her own hand.

Before she could get the machinery of department G to working properly, however, Hille had gone out from Conwell to Wohlehen. Then Fate ordered that Elwert be sent in to hit for Moore. Now Moore is generally considered a better hitter than Elwert, but Fate obeyed the behest of Fate of course, and Elwert went to bat.

With the Naves in the lead, Elwert drew the first walk Sage allowed. Still the game didn't look even sick. Nobody was coming for the Pirates, who were coming up hadn't hit a ball out of the infield on his three trips to the plate.

He looked mighty low, but he gave Sage as small a target as possible, but Big George said the apple right down the slot. Then came the blow. The ball didn't sound particularly loud and the ball started straight up. It looked for a second as if Tanner might catch it.

Then a swift messenger from department G got under the flying sphere and it suddenly took wings. The first alarming symptom was when the ball turned and started for the fence. Then fell the pall of gloom, for the speck just managed to disappear over the railings, missing the top of the fence not more than a matter of inches.

Kuhn started the ninth by drawing a walk from Judge, who had replied to Moore and again the powers elected to bunt, although twice before no runs had followed the army station. Anyhow, Brow didn't star-buster, as he proved by promptly striking out. At that you've got to hand it to him, he died trying, his third strike being an attempt to bunt a ball even with his nose. Malmquist flied

OTIS CRANDALL, ONCE "IRON MAN" OF GAME IS GOING; JONES ASKS WAIVERS

Otis Crandall.

Otis Crandall, the veteran twirler of the Browns and once known as the "Iron Man" of the New York Giants, is passing on. Fielder Jones, the Browns' manager, who declared last season that Crandall was the greatest pitcher in baseball has been able to use Crandall scarcely at all this season since his trouble with his right side resulting from a cold caught during the training season.

Sporting Comment

Pirates again today—4:30.

Whose fault was it, anyhow?

Gassers Saturday and Sunday. They're the road for the Naves until the 30th of July.

That was such an unexpected, such a punk blow, that even the Galveston club looked gloomy about it.

Well, gol-durn 'em, if they won't let us win any more close games, we're going to win some close games. What say?

Fans are fickle critters. The Kaiser got two hits and batted in Waco's only run and everybody hollered because he batted at a bad one in the ninth.

Five 2-to-1 games in the majors and the Texas league yesterday. But there's no doubt that the one at Katy Park came closer to giving the fans heart disease.

Manager Rentell managed the club a la Connie Mack—with a Panama hat. Give Connie Mack a few breaks like Rentell got and he'd win that American pennant yet.

There! It's all off, now. Just as we about had Bill Donovan convinced he ought to work Walters every day, Nym-maker breaks out again with three hits, including a triple. Durn it.

Houston copped a couple from the Gassers yesterday and while Syd Smith's gang was being chased out of our back yard the Buffaloes themselves kept a couple of notches. Better watch them there old boys.

Maybe our losing the game influenced that second contest at Fort. If the Oilers could have taken two from Fort Worth—but they didn't. And the Panthers are so close we can feel the hot breath of the feline monster upon our downy cheeks. Light 'em up, boys!

That was some marine adventure yesterday. The Hardy Tars righted the rakish hull of the Pirates' submarine and showed them their clumsy heels. The sub lumbered along in the path of the trim-built racer and looked like the tub she—just as the Mariners were about to escape, the Pirates as a last desperate shot, launched a torpedo blindly and blooey, blooey.

CENTRAL TEXAS LEAGUE.

Ennis 3, Terrell 2.
Terrell, June 15.—Ennis was outthit by Terrell, but managed to win a close game 3 to 2 today.

Waxahachie 6, Marlin 4.
Marlin, June 15.—The locals used two pitchers in an effort to win the opening game but to no avail, the Athletics winning 6 to 4.

Meridian 10, Walnut Springs 1.
Meridian, June 15.—Meridian pounded out a 10-to-1 victory here today over the Katy shop team of Walnut Springs. The feature of the game was the pitching of Peterson, who struck out ten men and allowed but one hit. Jordan of the Meridian nine had on his swatting clothes, allowing out a three-bagger and two singles. Meridian hit Matthews for ten hits and made two errors while Walnut Springs missed six times. Batteries: Meridian, Peterson and Howell; Walnut Springs, Matthews and Moncrief.

Roseenthal 5, Speegleville 4.
In a fast twelve-inning game at Roseenthal yesterday, Roseenthal defeated Speegleville 5 to 4. The winners pulled a thrilling triple play in the eleventh, thus cutting off a threatened rally of the visitors. Lawson, pitching for Speegleville, struck out thirteen men and was accorded perfect support, but hits were bunched on him at opportune times. Batteries: Speegleville, Lawson and Ledbetter; Roseenthal, Hill and Moncrief.

MARKET REPORT

COTTON

New York, June 15.—Apprehension that continued rains in the south might prove unfavorable to the crop appeared to be reflected in the steady ruling in the cotton futures today, while the buying was also promoted by further talk of increased exports. October contracts sold up from 12.33 to 12.59 and closed at 12.55, with the general list closing steadily at a net advance of 7 to 10 points.

The market opened steady at a decline of 2 to 3 points but the sharp break in Liverpool was again attributed to the easier freight situation and there were evidently few selling orders around the local ring. Houses with Liverpool connections were buyers, while there also was buying here for New Orleans account and there seemed to be some demand for near months from spot sources.

Prices sank a little in consequence and covering became rather more active as the market worked higher, while buying was further promoted during the afternoon by reports of an improved spot demand.

July contracts sold up from 12.66 to 12.84 in the late trading and December from 12.61 1/2 to 12.75 and the close was within 2 to 4 points of the best.

New Orleans, June 15.—Wet weather over the belt and a drop of 25 points in ocean freight rates caused heavy buying of cotton here today on which the market rose to a level 12 to 13 points over yesterday's best quotations, after a decline of 2 to 4 points around the opening, which was due to poor Liverpool cables.

The market had a firm undertone, especially in the early afternoon following posting of spot sales for the day of 43 1/2 bales.

Late in the day the upward tendency was checked by unfavorable rumors regarding the fighting around Verdun. The market closed at a net gain of 9 to 11 points.

SPOT MARKETS. Galveston, June 15.—Middling spot at 13.20c, receipts 1944, sales 1304, stock 176,744.

Dallas, June 15.—Cotton spot, middling 12.65c; market steady.

Houston, June 15.—Middling spot 13.20c, market steady; sales 639, to arrive none.

New Orleans, June 15.—Cotton spot, middling 12.65c; market firm; sales 186, f. o. b. 100.

New York, June 15.—Middling 12.90c; market quiet; sales none.

Liverpool, June 15.—Cotton spot closed weak today.

Good middling, including 1000 for speculation and export, receipts 14,000.

Chamber of Commerce Directors

WALTER G. LACY
First Vice President.

W. G. Lacy has striven ardently to put Waco into the city class, and has contributed towards its material and aesthetic upbuilding, his efforts being made cheerfully and with a good will and effectiveness which were most creditable. At present Mr. Lacy is first vice president and member of the executive committee of the Chamber of Commerce, a position which he has held for the past two years. He has been on the board of directors of this organization for several years. He is now a member of the finance committee of that organization also, and was on the membership committee which recently made the masterly reorganization effort of the Chamber of Commerce, putting it on the best basis it has been on in years. He served on the committee which compiled the new constitution and by-laws. Mr. Lacy has been a member of the Y. M. C. B. L. since its organization, and was one of a committee of three which organized this great agency. He was instrumental in organizing the Texas Coal Men's association, and served as secretary and president for several years. During the Spanish-American war Mr. Lacy showed that he was patriotic in a practical way, and was instrumental in organizing Company K, Texas National Guard (now on the border), and was the first captain to drill this company; afterwards resigning, and was appointed major, serving six years, when he retired. Mr. Lacy is on the board of directors of several Waco business and banking houses, and is the head of the W. D. Lacy Coal company. This business, in addition to its retail fuel yard at Waco, does an extensive jobbing business in Central and South Texas.

Rev. D. S. Moten Returns from Conference

Rev. D. S. Moten, dean of theology and vice president of Paul Quinn college, has returned from the quadrennial general conference, which was also the centennial conference of the A. M. E. church in this country, which was held in Philadelphia. He went to another important meeting or two before returning to Waco, and this kept him away some time.

The Philadelphia conference lasted three weeks, and he was associate editor of the Daily Recorder, which was published for the three weeks of the conference, telling of the work of that body. Rev. Moten is one of the brightest negroes in Texas, and his talent was recognized at Philadelphia. Two new bishops were chosen at this conference in Philadelphia, one of these, Bishop I. N. Ross of Baltimore, Md., and the other Bishop W. W. Beckett of Columbia, S. C. Their work is laid out in West and South Africa, and they will have charge there, though residing in this country. The bishop for Texas is Rt. Rev. J. H. Jones, A. M., D. D., of Wilberforce, Ohio. A great deal of work was done by the conference.

Rev. Moten has been busy since his return, and spent last week at the Prairie View normal, by invitation, delivering an address or two there. He reports this great negro school doing wonderfully well. He is presiding elder of the Bellville district, and there have been many conversions in the district, also accessions.

Bishop Jones will be in Waco on July 1 to hold the annual trustee meeting of Paul Quinn college and to meet the presiding elders in Texas, some twenty-two in number, Texas being the Tenth Episcopal district.

T. P. & L. White Way Contract Expected Today or Tomorrow

It was stated yesterday by Manager F. L. Booth of the Texas Power and Light company that the contract which is to be submitted to the city in connection with the proposed White Way on Austin street ought to be here at any time now.

He communicated with Dallas regarding the contract yesterday afternoon, and expects it today or tomorrow—in fact is looking for it by every mail which comes. He commented yesterday with W. W. Naman regarding the matter, and Mr. Naman was advised that the contract is expected at once.

If it is acceptable to the city work can begin at once, but if there are any changes to make it will involve a little more delay, though it is thought that matters are working towards a satisfactory solution of the matter.

TEXAS NATIONAL GUARD RECRUITING STATION OPENED

Lieut. J. F. Dewberry has arrived with his corps of four assistants to begin a strenuous two months' campaign for increasing the entire number of companies in the Texas National Guard to full war strength of 150 men.

During the campaign mapped out a thorough canvass of the following cities will be made: Waco, Marlin, Temple, Hubbard, Hillsboro, Belton and Gatesville. Headquarters are being established at the Armory hall, where all applicants will be given examination.

Lieutenant Dewberry says that all those who found it impossible to leave when Company K departed for mobilization will have a chance to enlist now for active service. The four assistants are Sergeant S. C. Moore, Privates W. H. Chatham, George McWilliams and P. Christenson.

Large Attendance at Taborian Park Negro Chautauqua

Despite the heat which held the city in its grip yesterday, a large crowd turned out for the negro chautauqua now being held at Taborian park. Enthusiasm waxed high, and the applause was liberal and well-timed. Close attention was paid each lecturer and real appreciation shown for music and recitations. A good sprinkling of whites among the darker faces indicated the fact that there are broad-minded people on both sides of the color line. This chautauqua continues two more days and the prospects are that much lasting good for both races will result. Good eating is provided for the large crowds that are expected for the remaining days.

The program for the remaining two days is given below:

This Afternoon.
2 p. m., "Physical Culture for Girls," Mrs. W. D. Miller.
Solo, Miss Lucile Williams.
Lecture, "Bible," Dr. D. A. Scott.
Music, choir.
Address, Hon. J. F. Rowe.
Music, choir.
5 p. m., address, Dr. J. M. Dawson, pastor First Baptist church (white).
Solo, Miss Pearl Hollingsworth.
Drill by cadets. Amusements.
8 p. m., addresses by Dr. Culver, Hon. Pat Neff, et al.

Saturday Morning.
9:30, musical entertainment.
Lecture, "The Ideal Teacher," Dr. D. A. Scott.
Music, choir.
"Evangelism in the Sunday School," by the pastors.
12:30, music, choir.

Saturday Afternoon.
Music, choir.
Lecture, "Bible," Dr. D. A. Scott.
Music, choir.

Solo Sunday school, B. Y. P. U., A. C. E. and E. P. L. and Palm Beach parade, led by Cobb's band.

Committees are as follows: Program, C. A. Wallace, W. D. Miller, W. H. Pernel, music, E. J. Bowers, E. V. Griggs, W. H. Pernel; privileges and stands, etc., E. L. Jackson, J. M. Johnson, J. M. Anderson; to confer with other organizations, U. S. Keeling, G. W. Anderson, W. D. Miller; soliciting committee, W. D. Miller, E. L. Jackson, J. M. Anderson, E. V. Griggs.

Interurban Prospects Look Promising, Says John J. Potts

"I notice that prospects seem fine for building the interurban railroad from Temple to Marlin through Mooreville, and I hope this line will materialize," said John J. Potts yesterday, and continuing he said:

"This line would open up and still further develop some magnificent country. Temple and Marlin, both help this entire section, including Waco. I am confident that if the line is built I could promote a line out of Waco to connect with it, and that it would be useful to a still larger constituency, and result in still further development. Such a line out of Waco would in no way interfere with the projected line from Temple, Austin and San Antonio, nor would it get in the way of the line which is expected to be built later out of Waco to Marlin, Bryan and on to Houston.

As a matter of fact, it is thought that this might be the first link on the line to Houston, as this line might be used instead of building a new road down the river on the east side.

Waco Men Have Gas Holdings Near New Vernon Jumbo Well

Dispatches in Texas newspapers yesterday told of a jumbo gas well which has been brought in a few miles from Vernon in Wilbarger county, and it is interesting to know that this well is within less than two miles of the holdings of a couple of well known men of Waco, one of them residing in Waco, the other living in San Antonio, but well known in Waco.

The men in question are F. M. Gardner of Waco and Rev. W. H. Vaughan of San Antonio, and they own a section of land which is within about a mile and a half of the big gas well, and there is oil around their holdings. The men have said very little about the matter, but this much is known, and their friends will hope that the developments, which look so promising for them, will pan out as they now promise to do.

Our Policy, "The Public Be Pleased"

Now Is Your Time to See Divers in Action at Locks

Regular divers 'suits are being used in the work at the lock and dam below Waco in the work which marks the finishing touches on the big structure, and persons who have not seen anything of this kind are interested in this phase of the work.

There is only one spot in the dam which needs attention, and when this shall have been attended to the water will be turned on and backed up so that the people of Waco will realize what a lock and dam will do. A few weeks, possibly sooner than that, the water can be thus turned on. The diver at work at the lock and dam is almost through with his portion of the work, and the cleaning up of the site will be undertaken almost at once. Major John W. Henderson of Galveston has been at work at the lock and dam for the past two or three days, watching the progress of work, and thinks the end of operations is now in sight. He has been coming up very frequently for some time now, realizing that the work was nearing an end. The work on the east bank is practically completed, and this is insured against washing or erosion in future.

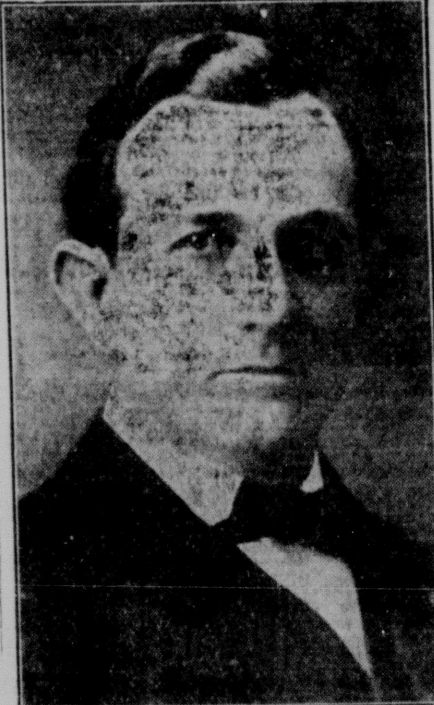

Waco Men Go to Minneapolis

Two prominent young men of Waco have gone to Minneapolis, Minn., to attend the international convention of the Baraca-Philathela classes, and each of these will appear on the program more than once.

C. H. Machen and James Jenkins are the young men who have gone to Minneapolis, and they will tell of the activities of the organization in Texas, and will do it well. The subject of one of the addresses of Mr. Machen will be, "How to Keep Young Men in Sunday School." Mr. Jenkins is one of the vice presidents of the national association.

C. M. Reeves Arrives to Open S. C. Office

C. M. Reeves Jr. has arrived to take up his recently assigned duties as traveling passenger agent for the Sunset Central lines. His territory is contiguous to Waco, and was formerly under the supervision of R. E. George. Mr. Reeves has had a wide experience in the work, having been city passenger agent for the Houston and Texas Central railway at Austin.

HON. TOM CONNALLY

Tom T. Connally Will Speak Here Tonight

Hon. Tom T. Connally of Marlin will speak in Waco tonight on the court house lawn, west side of the court house, in behalf of his candidacy for congress from this district.

Mr. Connally speaks in Waco tonight for the first time since his campaign opened, and there is much interest felt in his address, as he formerly lived in this city and has hundreds of friends here who will be anxious to hear him besides the interest felt by the general public. The speaking will begin at 8:30, and every effort will be made to see that it begins right on time, occasioning no delay to any one. This congressional contest is one in which the entire district is interested, and Mr. Connally will be certain to have a large hearing.

He spoke last night at Rosenthal, and tomorrow night will speak at Lorena.

Has Shaken the Hand of Many of Our Governors

Waco has a resident who has personally known and has shaken hands with every governor from Sam Houston down to James E. Ferguson, and the list not only goes back to Sam Houston, but includes him.

The gentleman in question is Mr. John Watson, former grand secretary of the Masonic Grand Lodge of Texas, and Mr. Watson says that he intends to keep up with his record of shaking hands and personal acquaintance, as there is little doubt that there is not another man in Texas who can make a claim like this.

Mr. Watson not only knows the governors, but he remembers many individual characteristics of the men who have been the chief executives of Texas, and can tell you of these things in a most interesting and entertaining manner. He is a man of most remarkable memory.

As a matter of fact, it is thought that this might be the first link on the line to Houston, as this line might be used instead of building a new road down the river on the east side.

Waco Men Have Gas Holdings Near New Vernon Jumbo Well

Dispatches in Texas newspapers yesterday told of a jumbo gas well which has been brought in a few miles from Vernon in Wilbarger county, and it is interesting to know that the well is within less than two miles of the holdings of a couple of well known men of Waco, one of them residing in Waco, the other living in San Antonio, but well known in Waco.

The men in question are F. M. Gardner of Waco and Rev. W. H. Vaughan of San Antonio, and they own a section of land which is within about a mile and a half of the big gas well, and there is oil around their holdings. The men have said very little about the matter, but this much is known, and their friends will hope that the developments, which look so promising for them, will pan out as they now promise to do.

Regular divers' suits are being used in the work at the lock and dam below Waco in the work which marks the finishing touches on the big structure, and persons who have not seen anything of this kind are interested in this phase of the work.

There is only one spot in the dam which needs attention, and when this shall have been attended to the water stand the people of Waco will realize what a lock and dam will do. A few weeks, possibly sooner than that, the water can be thus turned on. The diver at work at the lock and dam is almost through with his portion of the work, and the cleaning up of the site will be undertaken almost at once.

Major John W. Henderson of Galveston has been at work at the lock and dam for the past two or three days, watching the progress of work, and thinks the end of operations is now in sight. He has been coming up very frequently for some time now, realizing that the work was nearing an end. The work on the east bank is practically completed, and this is insured against washing or erosion in future.

Waco Men Go to Minneapolis

Two prominent young men of Waco have gone to Minneapolis, Minn., to attend the international convention of the Baraca-Philathea classes, and each of these will appear on the program more than once.

C. H. Machen and James Jenkins are the young men who have gone to Minneapolis, and they will tell of the activities of the organization in Texas, and will do it well. The subject will be of the address of Mr. Machen will be, "How to Keep Young Men in Sunday School." Mr. Jenkins is one of the vice presidents of the national association.

C. M. Reeves Arrives to Open S. C. Office

C. M. Reeves Jr. has arrived to take up his recently assigned duties as traveling passenger agent for the Sunset-Central lines. His territory is contiguous to Waco, and was formerly under the supervision of R. E. George. Mr. Reeves has had a wide experience in the work, having been city passenger agent for the Houston and Texas Central railway at Austin.

HON. TOM CONNALLY
Who will speak on court house lawn Friday evening, June 16, 8:30 o'clock. Everybody cordially invited.

Tom T. Connally Will Speak Here Tonight

Hon. Tom T. Connally of Marlin will speak in Waco tonight on the court house lawn, west side of the court house, in behalf of his candidacy for congress from this district.

Mr. Connally speaks in Waco tonight for the first time since his campaign opened, and there is much interest felt in his address, as he formerly lived in this city and has hundreds of friends here who will be anxious to hear him besides the interest felt by the general public. The speaking will begin at 8:30, and every effort will be made to see that it begins right on time, occasioning no delay to any one. This congressional contest is one in which the entire district is interested, and Mr. Connally will be certain to have a large hearing.

He spoke last night at Rosenthal and tomorrow night will speak at Lorenza.

Has Shaken the Hand of Many of Our Governors

Waco has a resident who has personally known and has shaken hands with every governor from Sam Houston down to James E. Ferguson, and the list not only goes back to Sam Houston, but includes him.

The gentleman in question is Mr. John Watson, former grand secretary of the Masonic Grand Lodge of Texas, and Mr. Watson says that he intends to keep up with his record of handshaking and personal acquaintance, as there is little doubt that there is not another man in Texas who can make a claim like this.

Mr. Watson not only knows the governors, but he remembers many individual characteristics of the men who have been the chief executives of Texas, and can tell you of these things in a most interesting and entertaining manner. He is a man of most remarkable memory.
